p. 67	Education for the Disadvantaged	$10,000	$948.6	n/a	Texas Education Agency (TEA)	Title I-A grants provide supplementary educational and related services to low-achieving and other students attending pre-k-12 schools with relatively high concentrations of pupils from low-income families. Formula funding based on number of disadvantaged students.
	Education for the Disadvantaged -- School Improvement Grants	$3,000	$285.2	n/a	TEA	Provides supplementary funds to states and local education agencies (LEAs) for school improvement purposes. States are eligible to apply for these grants, which are allocated in proportion to each state's share of funds received under ESEA Title I, Parts A, C (Migrant Education Program), and D (Neglected and Delinquent Children and Youth). States must use at least 95% of the funds received to make subgrants to LEAs. Subgrants made to LEAs must be between $50,000 and $500,000 for each school and must be renewable for up to two additional years if schools meet the goals of their school improvement plans.
	Impact Aid	$100	$7.0	n/a	TEA	40% of funds available by formula and 60% by competitive grant (as is done in current law). ARRA modifies some of the eligibility and priority criteria for receiving funds. For example, formula grants will be based on each LEA's proportion of military children and children living on Indian lands. ARRA removes the requirements that at least 50% of an LEA's student enrollment must be composed of military children or children living on Indian lands to receive a grant, and that the formula funds available be divided equally between LEAs enrolling at least 50% military children and those enrolling at least 50% children living on Indian lands.
p. 68	School Improvement Programs	$70	$3.5	n/a	TEA	Competitive grants made by state education agencies to LEAs under this program must be used to facilitate the enrollment, attendance, and success in school of homeless children and youth. Should be available to LEAs during school year 2009-2010 and 2010-2011.

Department of Transportation
p. 89	Surface Transportation Grants	$1,500	unknown	unknown	TXDOT	State matches are waived for all Transportation Programs. Competitive grant program where Secretary of Transportation awards funds for projects ranging from $20 million to $300 million. No more than 20 percent of these funds may be granted to a single state (the upper limit for Texas in this case would be $300 million). The Secretary of Transportation must publish grant criteria within 90 days of enactment and applications must be submitted within 180 days after the publication of the program call. $200 million can be used for the Transportation Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act (TIFIA), a federal credit program for eligible transportation projects of national or regional significance under which the U.S. Department of Transportation may provide three forms of credit assistance – secured (direct) loans, loan guarantees, and standby lines of credit.
p. 91	Air Transportation	$1,300	unknown	n/a	TXDOT	Under normal federal funding, Texas is a block grant state. Under ARRA Texas will have to compete with other states. The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) makes the final determination. The first 50% is to be obligated within 120 days and the second 50% should be obligated within one year. $200 million is for FAA infrastructure.

Federal amounts are from the bill text and reflect appropriated authority. Title II Assistance for Unemployed Workers and Struggling Families
Subtitle A-Unemployment Insurance
p. 322	Extension of emergency unemployment compensation program	$26,960	n/a	unknown	TWC	The program is an extension of the Emergency Unemployment Compensation Act of 2008 (EUC08). The EUC08 provided emergency unemployment compensation through March 31, 2009. The new provision adds an additional 20 weeks of unemployment benefits for eligible individuals, and 13 weeks more if they are in a state with high unemployment (3-month seasonally adjusted average UI rate of at least 6 percent). The duration of the program would extend through the week ending on or before December 31, 2009. No benefits would be payable for any week beginning after May 31, 2010. The funds would not need to be repaid to the federal government.
p. 323	Increase in unemployment compensation benefits	$8,800	n/a	unknown	TWC	Temporarily increases weekly compensation to both regular and extended unemployment benefits by $25 a week through December 31, 2009; benefits are paid with federal general funds.
p. 325	UI Incentive Payments would provide $7 billion total in incentive payments to states to encourage modernizing UI programs by increasing UI coverage among low-wage, part-time and other jobless workers. Payments would be staggered as follows:
	1/3 share of $7 billion	$2,333	$185.2	unknown	TWC	If a state adopts Alternative Base Period. UI alternative base period would allow more workers to qualify for benefits by adding flexibility when determining monetary eligibility for UI (Note: Texas UI base period is currently first 4 of the last 5 completed calendar quarters).
	2/3 share of $7 billion	$4,667	$370.5	unknown	TWC	If a state adopts Additional Benefit Features. For a state to receive two-thirds of incentive payment, at least 2 of the following provisions must be included its state law: (1) UI for part-time, (2) UI for compelling family reasons, (3) extended UI benefits for training, and (4) dependent allowances for UI recipients.

p. 329	Unemployment Insurance (UI)--State Administration	$500	$39.7	n/a	TWC	Amount can only be used for the following expenses: 1) administration of incentive payments; 2) outreach to individuals who may not be eligible for unemployment compensation benefits; 3) improvement of benefit and tax operations; and 4) staff-assisted re-employment services to claimants.
p. 329	Temporary assistance for states with advances	$1,100	unknown	unknown	TWC	Temporarily waives interest payment and the accrual of interest on state loans from the Federal Unemployment Account used to pay state unemployment benefits; the provision is in effect to December 31, 2010.
p. 330	Full Federal funding of extended unemployment compensation for a limited period	$138	n/a	unknown	TWC	Under current law, extended benefits (EB) are funded 50% by the federal government and 50% by the state. The bill temporarily alters this ratio, with the federal government funding 100% EB benefits through January 1, 2010.
p. 331	Temporary increase in extended unemployment benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act	$21	n/a	unknown	TWC	Currently railroad workers receive up to 26 weeks of unemployment benefits and 13 weeks of extended benefits to those workers with 10 or more years of service. The new provision temporarily adds 13 weeks of extended benefits. The act would apply to all railroad workers regardless of years of service. The provision would apply to employees who received unemployment benefits during the benefit year beginning July 1, 2008 and ending June 30, 2009. No extended benefits would begin after December 31, 2009.
	Subtitle B-Assistance for Vulnerable Individuals
p. 332	Emergency fund for TANF program	$5,000	unknown	unknown	HHSC	The bill allocates a $5 billion contingency block grant, providing states additional resources to meet increased TANF expenditures. States can request quarterly grants for three purposes: 1) Caseload increases 2) Increased expenditures related to non-recurrent short-term benefits and 3) Increased expenditures for subsidized employment. Fund payments are determined by how much the state's caseloads/expenditures for a given quarter exceed the corresponding quarter of the emergency base year (or the year, either 2007 or 2008, where the state's enrollment or expenditure data were the lowest). The grant reimburses states for 80 percent of the increased caseload data or expenditures.
p. 335	Extension of TANF supplemental grants	$319	$52.7	unknown	HHSC	Extends the TANF supplemental grants through FY 2010 to states with high population growth and/or increased poverty. Texas is one of 17 states that meet these criteria. Formerly these grants were set to expire in FY2009.
	Clarification of authority of states to use TANF funds carried over from prior years to provide tan benefits and services	n/a	n/a	n/a	HHSC	States are now allowed to use carried-over TANF funds for any TANF benefit, service or activity. Formerly, funds from previous fiscal years could be used only for cash assistance.
	Temporary resumption of prior child support law	$1,000	$160.7	n/a	OAG	The bill repeals a provision in the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 by permitting Child Support Enforcement (CSE) incentive funds earned for program performance, to be used as matching funds for federal amounts. The repeal is retroactive to the first quarter of the current federal fiscal year through September 30, 2010. Texas has the ability to receive up to $160.7 million if the state maximizes the federal matching funds.
